The Frankfort Commonwealth.

A. G. HODGES & CO., PROPRIETORS.

J. H. JOHNSON, EDITOR.

The Proprietors of the Commonwealth, grateful for the generous patronage which has been stewed upon them, are determined to furnish their patrons a journal which shall be unequalled in any of the departments which comprise a first class newspaper.

Published at the Capital of the State, it will be enabled to furnish its readers with the latest intelligence of the actions of the higher courts and of the various departments of the State. It will also contain the latest telegraphic news of stirring events, and also of the New York, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans markets.

In politics the Commonwealth will be conservative, occupying a middle and antagonistic ground in reference to the two extremes. The old parties broken up, and old issues virtually dead, the vital question at present is Union or disunion. The Commonwealth is for the Union, believing it to be the greatest safeguard for our rights, as well as our most effective auxiliary in our efforts to obtain redress for our wrongs. Its conductors do not regard disunion as a remedy for any of the wrongs of the South, but rather an aggravation. It will contend for the equality of the States in the Union, and for the absolute non-interference by Congress with the domestic affairs of the States and Territories.

We shall aim to make the Commonwealth an acceptable and appropriate fireside companion. It will contain selections from the choicest literature of the day, prose, poetry, &c.

The WEEKLY will be printed on extra double medium paper, in new and beautiful type.

Terms, in advance, for the Tri-Weekly, $4 per annum.

Terms, for the Weekly $2 per annum.

FRANKFORT.

THURSDAY.....MAY 16, 1861.

DAILY SESSION COMMONWEALTH.

TERMS—FIFTY CENTS PER MONTH.
If any person should pay for a longer time than the session continues, the Tri-weekly Commonwealth will be sent long enough to make it up.

The TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH is published at Four Dollars per year, or FORTY CENTS per month.

The WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH is Two DOLLARS per year.

The DAILY COMMONWEALTH can be had at the counting-room at Five Cents per single copy, or at THREE DOLLARS per hundred. Orders should be left at the office, or with the reporters, on the day before the publication of the particular number of the paper which is wanted.

"The Voice of the People."—In the Senate yesterday, Judge Simpson, from a select committee, reported a bill to change the time of the meeting of the General Assembly to the first Monday in September.

The secessionists in the Senate opposed it with the utmost bitterness and vehemence. All sorts of flimsy objections were raised against, and, as no sound reason against its passage could be urged, resort was had to parliamentary tactics to delay its passage. It was finally referred.

The men who oppose this bill are the very ones who have been, and still are so clamorous for a sovereignty convention. They want to hear from the people. Now, when a mode is presented them, by which they can ascertain the wish of the voters of this State in a short time, they object, and fight against it, as they fight against every measure looking to the peace and quiet of Kentucky, and her continuance in the Union. The representatives will be elected upon the only issue now before the country. Through them the people can speak in a direct and in a constitutional manner. What is the objection to this, Messrs. Secessionists? Do you dread the verdict of the people? You had better.

For the Frankfort Commonwealth.

A Voice from the Country.

Mr. Editor.—Is it possible that our worthy Governor, or any considerable portion of our Legislature, can have it seriously in contemplation to involve the good people of Kentucky in debt to the amount of millions of dollars, in addition to the present debt of the State? Have our temporary rulers resolved to ruin our honored old Commonwealth by placing her in an attitude of war, and forcing us into hostilities with our brethren and neighbors on the other side of the Ohio river?

Forbid it, Heaven! Does not much of our own blood run in the veins of their people? Are not our interests and their interests identical, "one and inseparable, now and forever?"

We have no quarrel with them. Neither have they any quarrel with us. We neither thirst for their blood, nor do they thirst for ours. "Union and peace" is their motto and ours! Why then shall our Legislature even talk about heaping upon us a burden of debt which our children's children may not be able to pay? Have not fully four-fifths and more of the whole of our voting people proclaimed in unmistakable terms within the last ten days their heart-felt desire for Union and peace?

Why then should our Governor talk about calling a Convention, in an unconstitutional manner, to decide, under great excitement, a question which they have so lately and deliberately decided in a constitutional manner? This unnatural and unholy war between our northern and our southern brethren, like everything else, must have an end; and the sooner the better for all concerned.

And while Kentucky takes no part in the war, she will be safe from attacks on either side; and may, as a mediator, exert mighty influence in bringing about a reconciliation, and restoring the blessings of peace and harmony to our great and hitherto prosperous and happy country.

I beg that you will entreat, beseech, and implore, the representatives of Kentucky to take no action that could, by possibility, have the effect to change our present position of Union and peace for that of civil war.

May God, in mercy, banish from the hearts of our rulers all selfish and impure motives; and fill them with wisdom, prudence and true patriotism in this our time of trial.

A NATIVE KENTUCKIAN.

HORRIBLE—IF TRUE!

Oh! Don't, Mr. Duncan, Don't!!

It is with feelings that words are inadequate to describe, that we lay before our readers the following from the Evening Bulletin, of yesterday:

NEW YORK, May 15.

It is said great discontent prevails among the military mob at Harper's Ferry. A serious and bloody row occurred a day or two since, in which one or more of the Kentucky volunteers of Blanton Duncan's squad were killed and others wounded; and following this was a threat from Duncan to disband his squad and return home.

Great Duncan! Good Duncan! Colonel Duncan! please don't disband thy squad.

"Take any shape that thou,
And our arm nerves shall never falter."

DR. ABELL.—We understand that it is the desire of the Union men of the counties of Woodford, county, that Col. Thomas Buford should represent that county in our next Legislature. We are not advised of the views of Col. B. on this question, but most unhesitatingly say that no better man could be selected.

We understand that the present able representative of that county, J. K. Goodloe, Esq., positively declines a re-election. Woodford is a staunch Union county, and will send a firm, standing-up, Union representative. We shall need back bone in our next Legislature. Give us solid men, and keep your mere politicians for future use.

CAPT. L. H. ROUSSEAU.—In our brief notice of this gentleman yesterday, our printers made us say "elegant," when we intended to say "eloquent." It was not exactly a misprint, (we have the authority of a lady friend of ours for saying it,) but it was not what we intended to say. The Captain intends to make the race upon his muscle and patriotism, and not upon his human beauty.

By-the-bye, we should also have stated that the Captain is a candidate, subject to the decision of a Convention of the Union party of the 7th Congressional district.

HORSES FOR THE SOUTH.—Fifteen horses arrived in Covington, Ky., on Monday, from Cincinnati, by the Covington ferryboat, and were immediately taken to the Kentucky Central railroad depot, where they were forwarded to Lexington on their way South. The transaction soon got wind, and a squad of detectives appeared on the Cincinnati landing and arrested the men engaged in the affair; at the same time they took possession of several other horses about to accompany their predecessors South.

We call attention to the letter from Fleming county. What's up? It may be that the early meeting of the next Legislature would interfere with the proposed Convention for taking us out. Who knows? Before this Legislature adjourns, it had better open its eyes to the actions of those who are plotting treason in our midst.

S. J. ENGLAND, Esq.—We are glad to announce that this staunch and true Union man has been nominated by the Union men of the counties of Carter and Rowan, for their representative in the next Legislature. No better selection could have been made.

The Hon. John Young Brown is a candidate for re-election for Congress in the 5th district. He is a thorough Union man, and will probably have no opposition. He commences the canvass at Harrodsburg on Saturday next.

We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting James G. George, the talented editor of the Richmond Messenger. He is doing good service for the Union, and the Messenger, under his control, has been one of the best papers in the State.

We are daily indebted to Mr. Rose, Express Messenger on the Louisville and Lexington railroad, and to Tom Hally, omnibus agent on the same road, for New Orleans, Memphis and Cincinnati papers.

NEW ORLEANS BANKS.—The Louisville Journal learns that a dispatch was received in that city, on Sunday, to the effect that the New Orleans banks suspended specie payment on Saturday.

In Gen. Beauregard's official account of the bombardment of Fort Sumpter, we find the statement that there were four persons wounded, but none killed.

Letter from Fleming County.

HILLSBOROUGH, May 14, 1861.
Editor Commonwealth:

The country is now looking with intense interest at the doings of our Legislature. Nor is this at all strange, when we reflect that weightier responsibilities have never rested upon the General Assembly. Kentucky, glorious old Kentucky, the home of the bravest of the brave, still holds on to the old stars and stripes, notwithstanding the ruinous defection with which her southern sisters is afflicted. May she still stand, even though every slave State leave the Union; at least, let her prove loyal to the Constitution until her rights are infringed.

Her own peace, and her interests, call loudly for a position of neutrality; and it may be safe in a position of armed neutrality, provided the management of the arms is confided to lovers of the Union—not otherwise surely. Better, far better, that Kentucky remain unarmed, than arm and place her at the mercy of her Secessionists, whether they be in high or low position.

This is no time to be too modest. The State having just declared for the Union, it would be an act of faithlessness, and breach of sacred trust on the part of her Legislature, to place her arms in the hands of those who are anxious to turn them against her dearest interests. This must not be.

Backed up by a powerful popular vote, the Legislature should feel fully authorized not to pass any act for a Convention, and also to refuse to submit any question of Union or Disunion to be voted upon. The State wants to be loyal. Why shall we continue to agitate? We have had enough of it, and the sentiment of Kentucky is known to be for peace. Let it go forth, therefore, from Frankfort that Kentucky, having protested from the start against this horrible fratricidal war, will have no hand in it. And if demagogues will persist in their wickedness, and the land shall be drenched with the blood of its own citizens; if war and general ruin must ensue, let my native State stand aloof from the unhappy struggle; and, as the destroying angel in smiting the first born of Egypt, passed over the land of Goshen, restraining the withering hand of death, so, when the blaze of lurid war shall fill our doomed country with carnage and mourning, let Kentucky be a spot still sacred to peace; let her stand forth a monument of wisdom, loyalty, and prudence. Is it possible that even now there are men at Frankfort representing a strong Union constituency who are blind to the right of instruction? Can such persons really be found willing, in this our country's hour of trial, to betray her into the hands of secession? Let them be careful how they outrage the rights of their people. Our section is strongly Union, I rejoice to say.

Continue to battle on as you have, Mr. Editor, in the good cause, and may our people persevere in the right. Yours, &c., FLEMING.

We find the following letter in the Cincinnati Commercial, of yesterday:

Letter from a Kentuckian.

FLEMINGSBURG, Ky., May 13, 1861.

EDS. COM.: The Union members of the Kentucky Legislature—the reliable yeomanry—business men, and tax-payers should know what is now secretly attempted by the Secessionists in Kentucky, viz: That the Secessionists are arranging for a Secret Convention, of force, to meet soon at Lexington, Kentucky, and there fill out by literal copy a bill of sale similar to those of Governors Letcher and Harris for Virginia and Tennessee, for Kentucky—their birthrights, constitutional rights and guarantees of protection under it, and of our sister States of Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois, and their powerful immediate allies, Pennsylvania, New York, Michigan, and Wisconsin; and all they give for arming the State with that personal covenant only of indemnity, that "the State expenses and pay the debts of the Confederacy, and all damages for blood and treasure, desolation, fire, famine, horror, &c., to be paid by the Confederate States." People of Kentucky, will you submit to it? Will you vote either to arm the State, as pretended, or will you pay it? No sheriff will ever be permitted to collect or pay it over. Governor Magoffin deceived the people of Kentucky when he induced them to elect him over that patriot, Joshua F. Bell, who is true in fact to his State and the Union; and he further deceived them by that sensible letter, purporting to be from his pen and heart, to Mr. Major, on the 16th November, 1860—the only sensible document that has emanated from that functionary since he has been aspiring for office and pretermitted in the filibustering Confederacy of Jeff. Davis & Co. We say, do not submit to any law for arming the State; any such appropriation is decidedly, in fact, unconstitutional in Kentucky. Under the 35th and 36th sections of article II, of the present Constitution of Kentucky, they prohibit any such appropriation, and it taking effect until it shall have been submitted to the people at a general election, and shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it.

And no necessity in fact exists for any exception to this provision, within its exception when taken in connection with the Constitution of the United States—her sovereignty, duty, and ability. Nothing is needed legitimately for repelling invasion or suppressing insurrection. Nor are hostilities threatened; but, on the contrary, the President has assured Mr. Underwood and Mr. Davis that, if we remain neutral, "No hostile foot shall tread our soil," and our sister border States also, all guarantee the same. While the United States is not only our protectorate, but that Constitution, Union, and the enforcement of the laws to which we owe faithful allegiance, is not only willing, but able, to shield and protect us, and to foist the bill of costs out of her general receipts from imports and public lands, of which she holds the keys—indeed, of all these United States, and has the credit to carry the debt until paid. While, for Kentucky to even vote to arm the State, (in the face of our neutral pretensions—which is inconsistent in itself even,) is starting and inaugurating direct taxes (with a vengeance) and to no purpose, but to arm the arch traitor at our head—the Kentucky Cataline—to furnish the proceeds to the Southern Confederacy, to be used against the existing sovereign will of the people of Kentucky—the grand majority of whom are for the preservation of this Union, crushing out rebellion and revolution, beheading Magoffin, seeing that the U. S. District Attorney Harlan duly indicts Blanton, Se De Kay, and all traitors, and all other violators of the law, and that as each House of Representatives is the sole judge of the qualification of its own members, that the U. S. Senate will duly duplicate Wigfall's certificate for J. C. Breckinridge, and return him. He is misrepresenting the people who placed him in his present position. If any law be passed to appropriate money to arm the State, no contractor will ever be paid, for the next Legislature will be a reliable Union, constitutional one. Her courts are ditto, and will repudiate and annul the law, as unconstitutional, and if she secedes, she will be put past paying the bill, and so will the Southern Confederacy. It will save millions too, and it is the interest of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois to encourage our neutrality, and also to guarantee us immediate and prompt aid if the secessionists attempt to put us out of the Union. In fighting Secession with neutrality even, we are doing what Union men failed to do in Virginia and Tennessee, and are saving the Government millions of money.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, designed to be the most effectual Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Pan Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an efficacious antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:

SCHROUD AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SCAR, HEAL, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULEUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipp'd in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body.
